

THORP ALUMNI ASSOCIATION REPORTS PLANS FOR SOME INDIVIDUAL CLASS REUNIONS

Prior to the Coronavirus pandemic, classes were making plans to celebrate with their own individual class reunions. New tentative plans are in the works for a variety of reunions.

The class of 1955 was going to celebrate their 65th anniversary at the TAA reunion. Kathy Badzinski Soderberg said at this time, no alternate plans are being made.

Tom Grendzinski said the class of 1960 had planned to celebrate their 60th with the TAA as well, along with a private party the night before. Their plans have been cancelled. At this time, they are unsure what they will do.

Jack Wagener of the class of 1970 said their class had planned to celebrate their 50th in August, 2020. Now they will each receive a letter from Jack regarding tentative plans to celebrate in the summer or fall of 2021.

Susan Fisher DeBauche reported that the class of 1975 had planned to have their own 45th reunion. Now their plans are to combine with the class of 1976 and celebrate with them on July 10, 2021.

The 2020 TAA reunion on June 27, 2020 has been cancelled and plans are to hold their next reunion on June 26, 2021 at the Quonset Hall outside of Thorp.
